

Job advertisement

The institute of communication and media research at the German Sports University Cologne invites applications for a part-time appointment (3/4) as member of academic staff

The position is offered for the period of two years and requires 29 hours and 50 minutes of labour time/week. The position should be filled as soon as possible. Ideal candidates aim for excellence in teaching and are interested in further scientific qualification.

GENERAL DUTIES:

- Collaboration in the research group "applied communication composition"
- Teaching in the area of communication and media research
- Supervision of experimental research projects in the area of nonverbal communication
- Development of relevant research projects and formulation of project applications

PROFILE:

- Degree in psychology or communication research
- Knowledge in the area of media psychology and nonverbal communication
- Experience in teaching
- English language skills appreciated
- Experience in apparatus-based research and/or programming skills welcome
- Ph.D. degree welcome

This position offers (and requests) the collaboration in research projects and the self responsible development of new research projects.

Applicants must be able to plan and give courses independently. According to official obligations (LLV) teaching three hours per week (3 SWS/F1) is requirement of the position. If candidates fulfill qualifications and requirements the pay scale will be according to standard rate 13 TV-L / TVÜ-Länder.

The German Sport University Cologne aims for a higher percentage of female employees. Female applicants with the same aptitude, qualification and professional performance will be preferred if there are no factual reasons for a certain male applicant.

Please send your application documents in loose copies and not in folder. As soon as the position is filled documents will be destroyed. Please send your application with the code number 0958/wMA-Medienforschung-Por until 18th of January 2010 to the following address

Dezernat 2
Personalabteilung (Abteilung 2.2) der
Deutschen Sporthochschule Köln
Am Sportpark Müngersdorf 6
50933 Köln